Jordan v. Mirra, 12 CIV 1742

Dear Judge Forrest:

I write on behalf of Defendant, Raymond A. Mirra, to respectfully request, pursuant to Your Honor's Individual Rule 1(E), an extension of time by which to move or answer Plaintiff's complaint. I have conferred with counsel for Plaintiff and they join in this request.

Defendant's answer is currently due on May 8, 2012. There have been no previous requests for an extension of time for this filing.

The parties propose the new deadlines to be as follows:

Defendant will move or answer by June 5, 2012;

Plaintiff will file her opposition on or before July 19, 2012 (during approximately two weeks in this period, Plaintiff's counsel will be out for a long-planned family vacation with some family members, at times, coming together from across the country); and

Defendant will file his reply within 10 business days of the filing of Plaintiff's opposition.

(if any)

Plaintiff reserves the right to seek permission to file a sur-reply to any motion filed by Defendant.

Respectfully submitted,

Joseph R. Moodhe
